

AGM and Awards presentation – 7th February 2018

25 members attended the AGM at The Round Oak. All of the officers and committee members were re-elected again, but with the addition of Ian Goodhall, who volunteered to stand and was quickly proposed, seconded and unanimously elected before he could change his mind! Ian has been helping with events, marshalling at the Levis, taking photographs and has recently set up our Facebook page, so his joining the committee now will be helpful. Treasurer Stuart Munroe reported that the section continues to be in a satisfactory and stable financial position, just minor tweaks being required to keep it that way. It was decided that our charitable donation be held over this year in order to be able to make one of a more meaningful size next year. A year ago the function room at the Round Oak had been undergoing some improvement and opening out. As anticipated then, this has made it much better for us and, though perhaps a little snug on very popular evenings, it is an excellent facility and we are very warmly welcomed and supported by the pub.

Right: The committee, in secret from its Chairman, decided to give the Harold Scott Award for outstanding contribution to section activities to Section Chairman Martyn Round. In 2010 when both Chairman and Secretary stood down Martyn had initially taken on both roles until Dave became secretary a few months later. Martyn is now the longest serving Chairman in the Section's history. Then in 2015 he took on organising the Levis Trial when no-one else wanted to. He presently also organises the Girder Fork run each year.
